

Charlie Havill

BRIGHTON, ENGLAND

AGE

28

LOCATION

Brighton, England

HEIGHT

175 cm / 5'9"

DISCIPLINES

Parkour / Acrobatics

A professional parkour athlete and member of Storm Freerun, based in Brighton, England. With a background rooted in acrobatics, martial arts tricking and gymnastics, Charlie brings a rare artistic style to parkour, drawing on influences from American, Japanese and Russian movement culture.

MOVEMENT STYLE

Charlie Havill's movement is defined by its artistic depth and technical precision. Drawing from acrobatics, martial arts tricking and gymnastics, he specialises in rare and highly technical tricks that set him apart. His style is heavily influenced by American, Japanese and Russian movement culture, resulting in a creative and visually distinctive approach to parkour. Charlie is known for his ability to build fluid, imaginative lines that blend power with artistry.

EXPERIENCE

Member of Storm Freerun, one of the most recognised parkour teams in the world. Background in acrobatics, martial arts tricking and gymnastics. International workshop leader and competition performer. 3rd place in Style at the Sport Parkour League 2018. Currently pursuing a PhD in Cognitive Neuroscience at the University of Sussex.

PROFESSIONAL CREDITS

Performer in Warner Bros' Cats (uncredited). Core member of Storm Freerun with appearances in team productions and global tours. Featured in international parkour competitions and events. Sport Parkour League 2018 finalist, placing 3rd in Style. Workshop leader at parkour events across Europe and beyond.

